

EXCELLENCE IN LABOR-MANAGEMENT COOPERATION AWARD

Better Built is excited to sponsor and invite nominations for the annual Award of Excellence in Labor-Management Cooperation. We encourage you to consider individuals or organizations (such as companies, unions, labor-management teams, non-profits, or public and private entities) that exemplify exemplary cooperative labor-management practices in our local community.

To nominate, please complete the attached form and provide a detailed narrative explaining why the nominee deserves this award. Your narrative should include specific examples of how the nominee's labor-management activities have positively impacted their organization, the industry, and/or the community. The narrative should highlight how the nominee demonstrates some or all of the following qualities:

- A consistent history or reputation for effective labor-management cooperation
- Diligence in fostering and maintaining strong relationships between labor and management
- Collaborative efforts to address issues and concerns
- Innovation in resolving complex issues and situations
- Proficiency in conflict resolution and collaboration
- Respect for both labor and management representatives
- Ability to bridge differing perspectives to advance projects and contracts
- Exemplary representation of labor-management cooperation in the community
- Encouragement of a cooperative spirit among co-workers and employees
- Commitment to community service and support efforts

We look forward to recognizing those who embody these principles and make a significant impact through their cooperative efforts.

Feel free to include any additional information you feel would be appropriate to support your nominee. Self-nominations are welcome.

This award for Excellence in Labor-Management Cooperation will be presented to the recipient on October 9, 2024.

To nominate an individual or organization, please send your nomination to:
Better Built at 1811 W. Altorfer Dr., Peoria, IL 61615, or via email at csalerno@gpcsa.org

Nomination Deadline: September 20, 2024
